

GRAFF

The company said the Aqua-Sense digital shower is its most technologically advanced collection to date. Created for luxury home spas, the system combines color-changing LED lights, a touch-screen, ceiling-installed speakers, a USB port for using an iPod and four flow configurations. It's also equipped with a hand shower, foot shower and adjustable side body-sprays. It costs about $25,000. graiffaucets.com

CLICK FOR VIDEO

Dornbracht

Hansgrohe

The Raindance Select Showerpipe features a large shoulder-wide 14 1/8-in. head and three-function Raindance Select 150 hand shower. An exposed thermostatic mixing valve ensures proper water temperature, and a built-in shelf provides ample storage space. Featuring QuickClean function on hand shower and shower head, the product comes in chrome or chrome/white finish. It's priced at $1,498. hansgrohe-usa.com

Dornbracht

This Tara two-hole tub mixer is part of what might be the company's most popular line among architects. Designed for soaking tubs, it's constructed from cast brass and features a ceramic disc cartridge. The product measures 36 1/2 ins. tall, swivels 180 degrees and comes in five finishes. Prices range from $4,132 to $5,477. www.dornbracht.com

Kohler

Numi is perhaps the most talked-about toilet of the last few years. The unit has a built-in bidet and deodorizer; an automatic open and close lid; built-in music system; heated seat and foot warmer; and an LCD touch-screen remote control. Priced at around $6,400, it flushes with 1.28 gallons of water or 0.6 gallons. www.kohler.com