

2014 bath style

1 For a stunning completion to bath projects, Motawi Tileworks carries the legacy of timeless American art tile. Every one of their tiles is trimmed, sanded, dipped and glazed by hand for stunning result. motawi.com

2 For high-style accessories, Paradigm Trends has more than 25 years experience setting trends for those necessary finishing touches to bath design. Soap dishes, tissue box covers and more are available in a variety of designs and customization options. paradigmrends.com

3 Craftsmanship is the center of the Samuel Heath philosophy. Quality and integrity are synonymous with their English-style faucets, door and window fittings, soap dishes, mirrors and more. samuel-heath.com

4 For products not found anywhere else, Rocky Mountain Hardware offers custom bronze work for door hardware and accessories, sinks, faucets, tile and lighting. They can echo a special architectural detail or favorite personal icon to make the design complete. rockymountainhardware.com

5 From Premier Copper Products come handmade copper products made by artisans in Mexico. Sinks, mirrors, vanities and more all pass rigorous quality control standards to ensure customers are never disappointed. premiercopperproducts.com

6 The RINCON BAY™ series from California Faucets is described as “transitional meets deco” and exudes the cosmopolitan feel of the San Francisco bayside town for which it was named. Matching tub, shower and accessories are available. californiafaucets.com

7 Granite Transformations brings five exclusive colors to its already extensive collection. The new options—St. Moritz, Grigio Dolomite, Cortina, Gardena and St. Leo's Copper—reflect earthy tones. granitetransformations.com

8 For a statement maker, GRAFF continues to push the envelope with extraordinary design in basin and shower faucets. These wall-mounted faucet designs are dramatic additions to contemporary bath renovations. graff-faucets.com

9 The Jet Set from Walker Zanger channels mid-century glamour in six marble tile geometric designs: Starlet, Mai Tai, Oasis, Cabana, Globetrotter and Poolside. Each is available in both warm and cool tones. walkerzanger.com

10 The Zen Collection from Watermark Designs brings the outdoors in while pushing the edges of faucet innovation. Using rocks and stones in new ways, the collection has a distinctly organic feel. watermark-designs.com

2014 bath style

