1. IT TAKES TWO

Modern appeal meets traditional styling in Kohler's new Vault sink. The double-bowl design shown here is hand-crafted of 18-gauge stainless steel and has a low divider wall for easy movement between basins. It also comes with a drying rack that fits the bottom of the sink. The short apron can accommodate most standard cabinetry. Find the farmhouse-style sink at Hughes Supply, Scottsdale, (480) 951-0124, hughessupply.com.

2. BRIGHT IDEA

Add Contemporary Southwest flair to a space with the Woven Leather Lamp from Frederick Cooper. The table lamp stands 30" tall and features an intricate hand-woven leather base. A neutral-toned linen shade tops the fixture, giving it a chic rustic look. The lamp is available through Laddow's Fine Furniture, Scottsdale, (480) 609-5000, laddows.com.

3. SET IN STONE

Soapstone countertops have an earthy aesthetic that can bring an organic feel to a kitchen. The highly durable stone is heat- and stain-resistant, antibacterial, low-maintenance and suitable for indoor or outdoor use. Offerings from Dorado Soapstone are mined in Brazil and come in numerous colorways, including Anasazi (pictured). Dorado Soapstone is available through Stockett Tile & Granite Co., Phoenix, (602) 344-8400, stockett.com.

4. CURVES AHEAD

Graff's new Ametis line of showers and faucets includes this Contemporary shower column. Designed by Davide Oppizzi, the fixture features a curving head that is equipped with a four-light LED chroma-therapy system. The column stands 63" tall, and body sprays are fitted along the sides. Chrome, black and white finishes are available. Purchase the line through The Studio at Central Arizona Supply, Phoenix, (602) 943-3488, centralazsupply.com.
