

ABLUTION REVOLUTION

Personal hygiene has never been more enjoyable ... or stylish. The offerings of elegant elements for the bath—from tubs and taps to cabinetry and towel warmers—continue to expand exponentially, transforming this most private of rooms into a sanctuary of primping and pampering.

The bath goes moody modern with the application of a black steel finish to the popular minimalist SC612 rain-effect showerhead. MGS, $2,850. mgstaps.com.

Middle: Designed by Elisa Ossino in collaboration with Salviati, the Fortane Bianche washbasin takes a minimal, purist view of the interrelation between the archetypal circle and square, where a precise hemisphere is cut from a marble block. Fantini, $5,450 (as shown with mirror and integrated faucet). fantinusa.com.

Bottom: The hand-hammered Stella sink gets its name from the stars in the night sky. To wit: Emblazoned on its subtly tapered shape—here showcasing a rose gold finish—is a blazing supernova. Thompson Traders, $700. thompsontraders.com.
