

BATHROOM

On Tap

We're enormous fans of a hot, soapy hand-washing after a trip to the loo. A good-looking sink faucet is a great way to encourage others to do the same.

Malmaison by THG Paris

The French luxury bath atelier partnered with premier silver designer Christophe for its latest collection, inspired by the ornate French Empire stylings of the Chateau de la Malmaison near Paris. An intricate pattern of lotus leaves and palmelles graces the faucet handles, crafted with crystal, marble, and brass. thgusa.com

Axor Starck Organic

The name says it all: The distinctive, designer-centered identity of the Axor brand, the sculptural playfulness of the Philippe Starck aesthetic, and a focus on environmental concerns makes for an innovative faucet that looks great and uses half the water of typical faucets. ## Caroma Marc Newson

One of Australia's most famous designers and its foremost bathroom brand team for a full collection of minimalist yet assertive hardware like this faucet with a standout lever and unique swivel head. caromamarcnewson.com

Ametis by Graff

The joystick-looking controller, LED color ring that indicates the water temperature, and, uh, fluid form of this faucet by Swiss designer Davide Dppizzi makes it look straight out of a bathroom of the future. graft-faucets.com
