

DESIGN IN THE DETAIL

Luxury has an extravagant lure. It's all about affording to choose. It is for those who are plucky and different. Today's new age faucets and mixers are all about this luxury in a new innovative mould.

KOHLER THE BOL

The Bol ceramic faucet by Kohler lends artistic distinction to your bathroom or powder room with its stunning design. Inspired by an antique apothecary mortar and pestle, this faucet features a fluid shape and quiet operation that showcases the soothing sound of flowing water. The above-the-counter model displays a straight line design with soft surface curves. It also handles speed of water flow.

SALVATORI ADDA MODULAR DRAWERS

With a nod to the wooden décor of the 1950's and 60's, designer David Lopez Quincoces has created a retro-contemporary collection for Salvatori that plays with the inherent properties of each material, in the coolness of natural stone and warmth of wood. Richly toned Walnut wood adopts a classic ribbed finish. The drawers can be combined with the basin units for utmost flexibility.
